SEVEN DEAD AS PLANE FALLS HOUSE STARTS FARM BILL TO WORKING

LARGE SUM CARRIED IN MEASURE PASSED BY HOUSE MONDAY

RECOMMENDATIONS OF HOOVER QUICKLY MET AT MONDAY SESSION

WASHINGTON, June 17. (AP)—Congress today appropriated $151,500,000 for the federal farm board and the legislation now goes to President Hoover.

WASHINGTON, June 17. (AP)—Responding quickly to the recommendation of President Hoover, the house today passed a bill to appropriate $151,500,000 of the $500,000,000 authorized for the federal farm board by the farm relief act.

Action was taken shortly after the White House recommendation had been forwarded to the capitol from the budget bureau.

To further expedite work the measure was approved under suspension of the rules, a procedure that shuns off amendments and drastically limits debate.

Chairman Wood of the appropriation committee in offering the bill explained that $150,000,000 was the initial amount of the half billion dollar revolving fund and the $1,500,000 was for the expenses of the board.

Representative Garner of Texas, democratic leader, asked why the

FRENCH OCEAN FLYERS ROYALLY GREETED BY PARIS

AMERICAN STOWAWAY CURIOUSITY TO FRENCH WITH HIS TALKATIVENESS

PARIS, June 17. (AP)—Three French trans-Atlantic birdmen were plucked today into a long program of receptions and celebrations. Although Paris seemed blasé to ocean flights, there was no disposition anywhere to let the feat of Jean Asolant, Rene Le Fevre and Armand Lotti pass without recognition.

The grinning, carrollous stowaway of the yellow bird, Arthur Schreiber, sure of a harvest of Greenbacks for the story of his free stolen ride over the ocean, gave his first thoughts of the day to getting sprung up for his stay in Paris.

Colonel Lindbergh after his arrival here contented himself for a while with a suit loaned by one of the footmen at the American embassy, but Schreiber, whose home is in Portland, Me., said quite plainly that he wanted "some presentable clothes."

Arrived Late Sunday
Long before the aviators had arisen a crowd gathered outside of their hotel. When they arrived at Le Bourget from Comillas, Spain, yesterday at 8:47 p. m. (2:47 p. m. E. S. T.) not more than 5,000 people.

TWENTY-FOUR MEMBERS OF LUMBER STEAMER CREW WERE RESCUED OFF OREGON COAST

Sun Newsboys Are Yo-Yo-ized—Each Lad Gets New Top

PORTLAND, Ore., June 17.—(AP)—The rescue of 24 members of the crew of the lumber steamer, Laurel, and the loss of one life was reported today by life saving crews near the mouth of the Columbia river, where the ship was broken in two yesterday by a storm. The gale played havoc with shipping along the Oregon-California coast.

Reports from the life savers said the fate of eight others on the wreck of the Laurel still was in doubt. The remaining eight were believed to be on the stern of the vessel on a sand pit half a mile off the north jetty at the mouth of the river.

The Laurel passed out of the river at an early hour yesterday, carrying 7,208,400 feet of lumber for the port of Philadelphia. Her steering gear became disabled, and the storm carried her back on to the sand pit. Life saving crews and tugs summoned by radio found her at daybreak but were unable to get close to her, owing to treacherous seas and floating lumber. At 7 a. m., she broke in two. One man was drowned, and the other 32 were left on the stern.

The steamer, Multnomah, in the coastwise service of the McCormick Steamship Company, flashed calls for help, reporting the storm had resulted in boiler trouble and took off 15 passengers. The crew remained at their posts, and with the boiler trouble apparently ended the vessel turned to the river under her own power.

A pilot schooner was dispatched and took off 15 passengers. The crew remained at their posts, and with the boiler trouble apparently ended the vessel turned to the river under her own power.

RAIL CONTRACT LET
SAN ANGELO, June 17.—(AP)—Contract for the construction of 85 miles of track between San Angelo and Sonora is to be awarded in Chicago today by the Santa Fe railway company, but public announcement probably will be withheld until the afternoon.

Several thousand people gathered at the construction site today to see the laying of the first rail. The extension is to be made on the Orient Lines.

PLATTSBURGH, N. Y., June 17.—(AP)—The death of Arthur Gordon, 28, shot while running 27 cases of beer from Canada in an automobile, presented problems for county officials today.

John C. Tulloch, collector of the port of Ogdensburg, said the shooting was accidental on the part of the customs border patrol men.

County authorities said the five shots which persons reported to District Attorney B. Loyal O'Connell they had heard did not, by the statements of Border Patrolman Cheatham that one shot from his rifle was fired unintentionally when he fell while chasing Gordon.

Tulloch said Patrolmen Convey and Cheatham tried to block Gordon's car with their two machines after they had sighted him coming down one of the booze trails not far from the border. The officers reported Gordon's automobile took a wheel off the first car, careened into a ditch and was just straightening out when the second car loomed before him. They said Gordon stopped, jumped out and ran back toward the border.

The custom collector's statement quoted Cheatham and Convey as saying that Gordon could not distinguish their uniforms and that they ordered him to stop with the customary command of "United States customs, halt."

Lowman Refuses to Comment
WASHINGTON, June 17.—(AP)—While refusing to comment pending receipt of official reports upon the shooting of a beer runner at Plattsburgh, N. Y., customs agents, Assistant Secretary Lowman of the treasury, said today the attention of all customs officers last week had been called to the department's policy against use of force except to protect life or prevent commission of a felony.

Summary of Killings
WASHINGTON, June 17.—(AP)—The clip sheet issued by the board of temperance prohibition and public morals of the Methodist Episcopal church today contained a summary of recent killings by prohibition agents and declared "wet journalists" champions had run the "gamut of abuse and abuse" in regards to the "outrages of officers of the law who are attempting to suppress criminal bootleggers."

TEXAS YOUTH DIES
GLOBE, Ariz., June 17.—(AP)—Ralph Henry, 19, said to be from Texas, died in a hospital here yesterday from injuries suffered when the automobile in which he was riding collided with another machine near Coolidge Dam. WASHINGTON, June 17. (AP)—Debate on the resolution to limit tariff revision to agricultural and related products got under way in the senate today with an opening statement by Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, author of the proposal, that the house had exceeded the republican platform promises in the bill it passed.

Borah said, "as part of the program for farm relief which this special session was called to consider."

IMPERIAL AIRWAYS LINER DROPS INTO ENGLISH CHANNEL

SEVEN OF ELEVEN PASSENGERS LOST LIVES IN AC- CIDENT MONDAY

LONDON, June 17. (AP)—The Imperial Airways announced today that seven passengers had lost their lives in the crash of a trans-channel airplane off Folkestone.

Four passengers, the pilot and mechanic were injured. The Imperial Airways statement said:

"The directors of the Imperial Airways announce with regret that the air liner which left Crofton at 10:30 a. m. today on the London-Zurich-Basel route, sent out distress signals when 15 miles across the channel."

"The pilot turned back and when three miles from shore came down in the channel. The pilot reported by wireless that he was landing alongside a trawler, which he did."

Assistance Dispatched
"Further marine assistance was dispatched under standing emergency arrangements immediately upon receipt of the pilot's distress signals."

"The directors deeply regret that seven passengers' lives were lost, four passengers and the pilot and mechanic were injured, but it is hoped not seriously."

"The air ministry inspector of accidents will make the prescribed investigation and until he has done so the company is unable to state precisely the cause either of the accident or the consequent loss of life. The liner has been salvaged and a thorough investigation can then be made."

Advices from Folkestone said five of the survivors were landed there, two women, two men passengers and the plane's mechanic. They were taken to the harbor master's office and later to a hospital for treatment.

One body, that of a woman, was brought ashore, but her identity had not been ascertained at a late hour.

The pilot, who was injured, remained on a trawler near the plane to salvage it.

An eye-witness of the crash said: "It was about 15 minutes after"

SEVERAL IMPORTANT MATTERS AWAITING ATTENTION SOLONS

EXPECT TO SETTLE ROBISON IMPEACHMENT OUTCOME DURING THIS WEEK

BY R. W. BARRY,
Associated Press Staff Writer.
AUSTIN, June 17.—(AP)—While the main actors are exploring the scenic beauties of the hill country—in the vicinity of Kerrville, Junction, Menard and Mason—the stay-at-home around the capitol are wondering what will be the outcome of several important subjects awaiting attention from the legislators.

Having won the applause of all impartial watchers for its strenuous work during the first half of the thirty-day second special session, the forty-first legislature, coming back on the job Tuesday, will find some conundrums.

The senate has sent to the house a concurrent resolution criticizing Mrs. Herbert Hoover for permitting the wife of a negro congressman from Illinois to attend a White House tea.

When it comes up for "concurrence" there may be a formidable storm, approaching the magnitude of the blow that shook the senate when the matter of reproaching the first lady of the land was broached. Some believe the house will attempt to avoid any feeling in

New York Women Eating Grapefruit To Become Slim

NEW YORK, June 17.—(AP)—New York women have "gone grapefruit."

While doctors scold and fashion writers insist curves are coming back, the ladies of Manhattan—actresses, stenographers, debutantes, and wives—are sighing and dining on grapefruit and olives, grapefruit and tomatoes, grapefruit and eggs, grapefruit and cucumbers, grapefruit and grapefruit.

"It's called the 'Hollywood diet,'" and it's an 18-day endurance test in which the victim is supposed to lose a pound a day. (If it happens to agree with her, and she gains on it, that's just too bad.)

At the end of 18 days, presumably looking about for dressmakers to take reefs in all her frocks, she is directed to go back to a normal diet for at least a month. Then more dressmakers can be let on these reefs.

For these 18 days every meal is planned. Breakfasts are all the same—half a grapefruit, one slice of melba toast, black coffee. Lunches and dinners, including the ubiquitous grapefruit, vary.

Mrs. W. W. Uzzell, employee in a department store, signed the affidavit which led Judge McCarty in giving McKenzie a hearing.

BRAMWELL BOOTH DIED AT LONDON HOUSE SUNDAY

NO SIGN OF MOURNING DIS- PLAYED AT HEADQUARTERS AFTER DEATH

HADLEY WOOD, Eng., June 18.—(AP)—Covered with a Salvation Army banner, the body of William Bramwell Booth lay in his house here today. His passing last night was unrecognized by any outward sign of mourning, either officially or among the rank and file of the Salvation Army, which he headed so long until deposed recently.

Not a flag was lowered at the International headquarters in Queen Victoria street.

"We keep our standard flying high," said a high official, "for Gen. Booth is not dead—he has passed to glory."

But though the Army tradition does not admit loss, there was in evidence everywhere among the Salvationists a deep sense of personal loss that the death of this 72-year-old general's death, so quietly and suddenly last night after final months of life which had been filled with the agony of ill health, conflict and defeat.

The peace of the tree-shaded street in Hadley Wood where he lived was broken today by the opening and shutting of the gate as messenger boys brought cables

PLANS OUTLINED TO RAISE FUNDS FOR STATE MEET.

STATE CONVENTION OF POSTAL EMPLOYEES TO BE ENTERTAINED IN JULY

Postmaster P. Mayer, chairman of the finance committee for the tenth annual convention of the Texas Federation of Postoffice Clerks and the thirty-third annual gathering of the Texas Association of Letter Carriers, in pointing out the commercial advantages of entertaining visitors estimated that these joint convention groups here July 4-5 would spend at least $8500 in Corsicana.

"Naturally, the big thing in entertaining conventions is the good will and publicity which comes to a host city but there is no denying the fact that good conventions are a commercial asset to a city," pointed out Mr. Mayer in discussing the forthcoming convention at a meeting of those interested at the chamber of commerce Monday.

Estimates on attendance range from 500 to 650 for the two-day conventions and men and women from practically every Texas city and town will be in Corsicana for the meetings. This will be the largest of the four conventions for Corsicana this year.

Committee Named.
Lowry Martin, W. P. Brown, J. C. Young, Jr., and E. D. McCarty have been named by the chamber of commerce to work with Mr. Mayer in lining out plans for financing the entertainment of the two-state postal groups. This committee began their duties yesterday and within the next two or three days will solicit funds for the assurance of Corsicana's hospitality.

"Here's my check for $25 and if you need more, want to do my share," said E. D. McCarty Monday as he came to the committee session. "The postoffice clerks and carriers are a faithful, splendid group of people and I think we are fortunate to have their state conventions in Corsicana and they deserve everything we can add to make their visit pleasant and successful."

Mr. McCarty told of being in Harlingen sometimes ago during a district postal convention and said the business men were all delighted with the personnel of the group meeting. The postal employees bring their wives with them and look toward the convention for weeks ahead.

Local Men at Work
The convention was secured for Corsicana last year at Amarillo largely through the efforts of H. R. Stewart, Corsicana carrier, who presented invitations from the chamber of commerce, city officials and other civic organizations. Clerks, city carriers and rural carriers of Corsicana have been working diligently on invitations to individual members of the state and one the general plans for the convention during the past seven or eight months.

Programs and letters giving pictures and descriptive literature of Corsicana have already been broadcast over the state.

Corsicana business men have a most cordial feeling toward employees of the postoffice and the committee anticipates no difficulty in raising the $850 which it is estimated it will cost to properly entertain the 600 visitors during the two days. Voluntary subscriptions to the entertainment fund may be made by calling Postmaster Mayer or the Chamber of Commerce.

Charges were placed against Theller.

Local Dealer Now Exhibiting Newest R. C. A. Radiolas

Two new Radiolas employing the new screen grid tubes and the power amplifier tube in a specially designed circuit were announced Monday morning by Tatum and Cunningham, authorized dealer of Radio-Victor corporation of America. One of these sets, the Radiola forty-four is a table model; the other, Radiola 44, is a console with built in electro-dynamic speaker. Both receivers are encased in cabinets of two toned walnut with maple overlays.

The circuit used in these two sets embodies two 224 screen grid tubes as radio frequency amplifiers which take care of the three tuned radio frequency circuits, but because of the impedance characteristics of the screen grid tubes, giving the selectivity of a set having four tuned circuits using the old three element tube. The two screen grid radio frequency amplifiers, too, give as much amplification as four of the ordinary three element tubes.

A third screen tube, used as a power detector, gives such strong signal that it makes possible the elimination of one stage of radio frequency amplification, thus reducing to a minimum the possibility of distortion, which is sometimes present where successive stages of audio amplification are used.

The new 345 power tube used an audio amplifier is capable of delivering a power output equal to the 210 tube, but operates on a lower plate impedance, resulting in greatly improved quality of tone reproduction.

John Jayroe Cunningham, invitee, visited these marked innovations.

FINE ATTENDANCE AND INTEREST MARKS CHRISTIAN SERVICES

Fine attendance and much interest marked the services Sunday at the First Christian Church. An inspiring musical program was given by the choir at the morning and evening services.

Rev. Mr. Lenox spoke at the evening hour upon the subject, "Life's Greatest Question," using as his text, "What Then Shall I Do With Jesus?" The minister said there were apparently different ways of settling this question. Some had settled it by absolute rejection, some by neutrality, others by putting off the decision until some future time. Then there were those that had settled it by accepting Him. But after all we are either for or against Christ. To deny; or neutrality, or deferring, all mean rejection. As you read the story of the years you find a wonderful fund of illustrations, and a beautiful setting forth of what the answer to life's greatest question has meant to the world.

The minister then contrasted the lives of Paul and Alexander the Great; Uffias the Goth and Attila the Hun; Randolph of Roanoke and "Stonewall" Jackson; Bob Ingersoll and William McKinley. Your answer to Life's Greatest Question means life or death. Choose life.

There were two additions to the church during the day.—Reporter.

The snake measured four feet in length, was very large and carried seven rattlers.

The snake was first discovered by Felix, a cat belonging to Mrs. Etheridge, and the women were attracted to the spot by the antics of the cat. They found the huge rattler coiled ready to strike and rattling vigorously. It was the largest rattlesnake seen around Personville in many years. It is believed to have been driven from the river bottom by the recent high waters.

CHURCH OF CHRIST SERVICES WERE WELL ATTENDED SUNDAY

Large crowds attended both services of the Church of Christ Sunday. Mr. Hines, the local preacher brought the messages. His subject for the morning hour was: "Deacons," and for the time allotted to the speaker, he with earnestness pleaded for scriptural "Deacons" and "Eldership." The speaker read from Thayers Greek Lexicon, the meaning of the word translated "deacon" as used in the Primitive church, which is: "A deacon, one who, by virtue of the office assigned him by the church, cares for the poor and has charge of and distributes the money collected for their use."

Mr. Hines used for his subject at 8 o'clock: "The Operation of the Spirit." A discussion of the "Bible heart" was entered into by the speaker, who said: "The heart of the Bible is the part of man that knows, thinks, reasons and understands, or in other words it is the 'inner man.' This 'inner man' of the sinner is sick unto death and needs an operation performed in order to save him. This operation is performed by the Holy Spirit, who uses the 'sword' as an instrument to do the operation.

Church of Christ must be circumcised with the circumcision not made with hands, that is, the foreskin of the heart must be cut away, which is the removing of the sins committed, as is clearly stated by Paul in Col. 2:11, 12." Mr. Hines declared that the Holy Spirit, God and Christ dwelled in the individual Christian and that all Christians made up the church in the aggregate, and that the church had had the gospel of reconciliation committed to her, and that God, Christ and the Holy Spirit all operate through this institution, for in it dwelleth the fullness of the Godhead bodily, Col. 2:9. "Where the gospel has not gone, you do not find Christians," declared the speaker "therefore it is up to Christian people to carry the gospel, which is God's word, to save, to lost men and women, in order that the Spirit might operate on them and lead them to the Lamb of God."

Near the conclusion of his sermon, Mr. Hines took up several questions of the New Testament and showed how the Spirit operated on them to bring them to God. There were a number of visitors from out of town in attendance at both services.

TEXAS CONGRESSMAN URGES DEMOCRATS OF NATION TAKE PARTY OUT RASKOB'S HANDS

WASHINGTON, June 14.—(AP)—Democrats of the country were urged today by Representative Box of Texas, assistant house democratic leader, to take their party control out of the hands of John J. Raskob, chairman of the national committee.

In his second speech on this subject since the last presidential election, the Texan, who supported Alfred E. Smith as the democratic presidential candidate, charged in the house that Raskob and his associates were seeking to change the party into an instrument of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment and make it merely "the organization of the liquor and anti-restriction blocs."

Asserting there was "no profession that Mr. Raskob is anything but a republican of the high finance type with no interest in democratic principles," Box declared Raskob was seeking to destroy the democratic party "so that it cannot soon become a dangerous opponent of his own party."

Box, who read a prepared address and who refused to be interrupted by members seeking to ask questions, referred to the dinner given last Monday night in honor of J. P. Shouse, chairman of the party's executive committee, at which Raskob announced plans for financing the party and also stated he hoped his remarks would remove any doubt as to his intention to continue as national chairman.

"I note that there is to be a reorganization drive downward from Mr. Raskob through the ranks of precincts," Mr. Box said. "While millions of democrats have been hoping that a movement from the ranks would result in a new national leadership, this announcement makes it plain that Mr. Raskob and his supporters intend to reorganize the party to suit themselves rather than have its national organization reorganized to suit the party."

"Shall we fight like men for things in which we, our constituents and countrymen believe? Shall we give up our party, with its origin in colonial times and its history of high service through 140 years, and let it now go into keeping and mental service of whiskey rings, capitalism by bosses of high finance, void of democratic political convictions?"

"If dissatisfied and sickened fellow democrats of every state will bear the counsel of an unpretending servant of the party and nation, I implore them to fight, not to submit, not to retreat."

"The effort of Mr. Raskob and his regime to have the democratic vanguardism, for just distribution of burdens of taxation, for moderation in tariff duties, and for general economic justice and soundness, and change the party into an instrument of the association opposed to prohibition, working for the liquor interests and make it also representative of groups opposed to restriction of immigration is an attempt to divert it from its larger mission and make it merely an organization of liquor and anti-restriction blocs."

WHEAT HARVEST IN MIDDLE WEST TO BE UNUSUALLY LATE

Harvest in the big wheat belt will be unusually late this year, according to information received at the Chamber of Commerce from the Farm Labor Division office at Kansas City.

The crop has been so retarded that the office is not in a position at this time to forecast a probable start of the harvest season in the Middle West, but promises another bulletin within the next few days, it was explained.

It is estimated there will be in excess of two million acres of wheat to be harvested in Texas where combines are now in operation, but there will be little demand for outside labor.

The Chamber of Commerce is beginning to receive inquiries from prospective harvest hands who desire to go to the wheat fields.

HOUSE AND SENATE TAKE QUICK ACTION ON REMODELED BILL

EXPORT DEBENTURE PLAN ELIMINATED BY CONFER- ENCE COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, June 14. (AP)—Legislative action on the farm relief bill was completed today by senate and house acceptance of the compromise measure, from which the export debenture plan was eliminated, and it now goes to President Hoover for signing.

This action followed a decision of the joint farm conference committee recommending elimination of the export debenture proposition as a result of the overwhelming house vote.

With the disposition of the farm question cleared, the legislative slate of the main task for which it was called into extraordinary session.

The bill as enacted resembles closely the original measure, which had the endorsement of the chief executive. This led to predictions from practically all quarters that the measure would receive a prompt signature.

WASHINGTON, June 14. (AP)—Farm relief legislation, passed through one of the final steps of its congressional journey today, after approval of the revised conference report eliminating the export debenture proposition from the measure.

The farm bill now goes to the senate where it will be voted against the debenture it is expected to receive speedy approval.

If this is forthcoming the measure probably will be sent to the white house where it will be signed into law.

The debentureless bill was approved earlier in the day by the joint senate and house conference report immediately after McNary presented the measure, Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, democratic leader, declared he would have no opposition to its passage.

"In the opinion of many senators on both sides of the chamber," he said, "the elimination of the debenture plan leaves this bill in no sense different from any legislation that might have been enacted at any time during the long contest for farm relief."

"The advocates of the debenture plan have in this legislation a longer than to secure a fair consideration. They have performed a duty by insisting that the house vote on the debenture plan."

Robinson said passage of the bill would end the long struggle for farm relief as "no further farm legislation can be expected until the measure has been fully tried out."

House approval of the compromise bill was delayed by protests from senators who favor the export debenture plan. No roll call vote was taken in the house. "The senate will be the final conference report was 73 to 8."

Three republican and five democratic senators voted against the measure. They were: La Follette, Wisconsin, Nebraska, South Dakota, and Pine Bluff, Oklahoma, republicans, and Blaine, South Carolina, Caraway, Arkansas, Copeland, New York, Walsh, Massachusetts, and Wheeler, Montana, democrats.

Stens was the only republican for Vice-president Curtis and Speaker Longworth to sign the measure so it could be sent forthwith to the president.

Conference Report Cuts Out Debenture
WASHINGTON, June 14. (AP)—In line with the decision of the house and concurring in views of President Hoover, the joint senate and house farm conference committee today approved a farm measure minus the controversial debenture proposition.

The two houses still must ratify the action of the conference, but leaders said they would press for immediate disposal in both chambers and predicted that the bill would pass the senate by a comfortable margin.

PERSONNEL FARM

BOARD ATTRACTING MUCH ATTENTION
By JAMES L. WEST
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
WASHINGTON, June 15. (AP)—President Hoover plans to move as rapidly as possible in selecting the eight men who will administer the new farm law as members of the federal farm board.

This board, members of which will draw cabinet officer salaries of $12,000 annually and have at their command a revolving fund of $500,000,000, will have authority and standing in agriculture comparable to that of the interstate commerce commission in transportation and the federal reserve board in finance.

A formidable list of candidates already has been presented to the president, and he is believed to have about made up his mind who is to be the chairman. The two men standing foremost in the general endorsement are James C. Stone of Lexington, Ky., president of the Burley Tobacco Growers' cooperative association, and Carl Williams of Oklahoma.

Texans Mentioned.
Others whose names have been mentioned more or less prominently in connection with the board membership include D. O. Moser of Texas, a cotton co-operative official; B. L. Corey of Seaside, New York, who also has had large experience in co-operative organization; and William H. Marshall of Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

There has been much speculation as to whether Mr. Hoover would offer a place on the board to Frank O. Lowery, former governor of Illinois, and a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination against Mr. Hoover.

Mr. Lowery was one of the foremost advocates of the equalization plan of farm relief and withdrew his name from the Kansas City convention after adoption of the agricultural plank omitting that proposition.

Jardine Mentioned.
There also has been some talk that a place might be offered to William M. Jardine, former secretary of agriculture, who resigned from the cabinet late in the Coolidge administration to become head of a fruit growers' co-operative association.

In making the appointments, the president is not restricted by geographical lines, but it is expected he will name at least one member from the great North-western grain section, where the farm relief movement had its inception some seven years ago. It is assumed also that he will give the Pacific Coast states representation as well as the South and other sections. He is asked by congress to appoint representatives of the growers of basic crops such as cotton, grain, tobacco and livestock.

Half Billion at Disposal.
The bill taken to the White House personally by Secretary Hyde late yesterday after Speaker Longworth and Vice President Curtis had signed it, shortly after the senate, voting 74 to 8, had accepted the second report of its representatives in the joint conference negotiations with the house recommending elimination of the debenture provision.

The bill authorizes establishment of a federal farm board with a fund of $500,000,000 at its disposal and broad powers to aid farmers in their own co-operative efforts through commodity advisory coun-

MAG-MILLERS WIN FRIDAY'S TILT WITH HUMBLE REFINERS

Playing heads up baseball, and taking advantage of all breaks, the Mag-Millers defeated the Humble Refiners, 6-1, Friday afternoon at the Municipal Park. Chris Hoffman turned in well pitched game for the Mag-Millers, holding the hard-hitting Refiners to five hits and one run, made in the first inning when Munsey tripped with Harrison on base.

Thompson and Rash led the hitting attack for the home team, each securing a double and single. Munsey secured the only extra base hit registered by the visitors.

MAG-MILLERS WON FROM OIL COMPANY TEAM ON SUNDAY

In a seven inning baseball game featured by the hitting of Shook, who secured a triple and a single in three attempts, and the pitching of Beauford Barnes, who whiffed six, the Mag-Miller team defeated the Texas company nine diamonds. Lefty Stancil, Barnes on the mound and succeeded in slipping the last strike by seven but allowed the Corsicana independent to bunt hits in the first, fourth and sixth to win.

Barnes pitched masterful ball, weathering a five run attack in the third, and pitched shut out ball the remainder of the contest.

McConnell, first baseman for the Texas company, secured the only extra-base hit off of the delivery of Barnes, doubling in the third inning.

NEW JERSEY COP CAPTURES FIRST PLACE IN MARATHON FINAL LOS ANGELES SUNDAY

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 17. (AP)—Bronzed of skin, haggard of face, and worn to the point of exhaustion, John Salo, 36, has conquered 3,635 miles of prairies, deserts and mountains to win C. C. Pyle's transcontinental foot race and the $25,000 first prize.

By a margin of but two minutes and 47 seconds Salo triumphed in the gruelling grind from New York City. That still lead he held over Pete Gavuzzi, 115-pound British-born Italian, in the total elapsed time standings when the transcontinental event came to an end here last night. Gavuzzi is entitled to a prize of $10,000.

It was in the final hours of the lengthy race that Salo, a Passaic, N. J., policeman, blazed his trail to victory. He came from behind to snatch the winner's laurels from the wiry Gavuzzi in the last 26 miles 355 yards of the derby. The final lap was in the form of a marathon at Wrigley field. A crowd of 10,000 watched the event. Salo was first to finish the marathon, coming in nine lamps ahead of Gavuzzi.

Salo crossed the continent in 525 hours, 57 minutes and 20 seconds. Gavuzzi did it in 526 hours and 7 seconds.

More than twelve hours behind Gavuzzi, but in position for third place money—$6,000—came Glusto Umek, of Italy, provided 46 minutes and 52 seconds. Sam Richman of New York, was next, ready to take the $3,500 prize for fourth place with a total of 571 hours, 29 minutes and 19 seconds.

A college youth, Paul Simpson, of Burlington, N. C., registered 588 hours, 30 minutes and 53 seconds to garner fifth place and $2,500. Sixth in line was Philip Granville, Indian from Hamilton, Ont., who walked and loped an aggregate of 617 hours, 54 minutes and 23 seconds for $2,250 of the "pot of gold" at the transcontinental rain-bow's end.

Regular Marathon Run.
A four mile jaunt from Huntington Park, a suburb to Wrigley Field here, preceded the 26 mile 355 yard regulation marathon.

In the four mile stretch Salo slashed four minutes and 2-5 seconds from the 9 minute 56 lead held by Gavuzzi. At the six mile mark of the regulation marathon, he forged into the elapsed time lead by four-fifths of a second, and gradually stretched his margin until, at the 16 mile post, he was more than four minutes ahead of Gavuzzi at that point got away to his famous sprinting finish, but his best was not enough to win.

The plodding pilgrims this year spent seventy-eight days to span the continent, six less than were required in last year's jaunt over the west to east course. The time made by the runners was approximately 50 hours faster than the time of Andy Payne, Claremore, Okla., who captured the first transcontinental job. This year's renewal of the derby started from New York March 31.

"The Athletics should win the pennant for several reasons. They are a young team who until this season did not know their power. They had it, but wouldn't believe it. They have a different spirit now; they know they're good."

Roaming the Realm — Or — County Sports

By DELMORE OLSEN

All of the elimination matches have been played in the City Park Tennis Tournament and the winners are looking forward to the second round matches, scheduled for Monday and Tuesday. In the first round, one half of the matches were defaulted, it looks like the hot weather has taken the ambition of a number of tennis players who would rather sit in the shade and watch a match than play.

In the feature matches of the week end, Maurice Young, one of the smoothest and most graceful players in the tournament, won his way into the quarter finals by defeating Manuel Gottlieb 4, 8-6, in the eliminations and then winning two out of three sets from Laverne Raggs, 6-4, 8-6, 4-6. Incidentally, the last named match was the first three set match of the tournament.

Of the ten boys entered from the State Home in the tourney, five still remain in the running Monday morning with a possibility of two entering the quarter finals. The Lads have a promising group of youngsters entered in the tournament, and judging by their performance the Navarro County University of Texas Interscholastic Tennis championship will remain at the State Home for some time. It was won this year by the Lads and Lassies by defeating handily all county representatives, including the Corsicana High school, whose representatives had ruled the

PLANNING FEATURES FOR INTERNATIONAL PETROLEUM SHOW

TULSA, June 14.—(AP)—Features for the international petroleum exposition and congress are taking form, said W. B. Way, general manager. The international congress, starting with the exposition, will have many foreign delegates. The American Petroleum Institute directors will hold one of their sessions in Tulsa at the time of the exposition, it was announced by W. G. Kelly upon his return from New York. The directors of the American Petroleum Institute had already decided upon adding to their policy of not taking an exhibit and had endorsed the exposition as a necessary aid to the business and a meeting place for the entire oil industry. There will be numerous meetings of people in various branches of the industry. An auditorium at the grounds will be ready and the downtown hotel and general facilities have been greatly enlarged. The policy adopted two years ago of confining the exposition strictly to the limits of the oil business will be followed out. Preliminary plans are out for the recognition of the veterans of the industry. "The Grand Old Man" will be elected just ahead of the exposition and a larger measure of recognition than ever will be granted the survivors of the early days. The old-time features of the industry will be reconstructed on other grounds. There are also plans for an elaborate technical and scientific display in a special building, and for many safety exhibitions.

"Silent Nine" Of Germany Carry Secret Missives To Many Lands

By LOUIS F. LOCHNER
(Associated Press Correspondent)
BERLIN.—Germany has a "silent nine" whose pictures nobody ever receives and whose names are never publicly divulged. They are couriers of the foreign office who carry the sealed diplomatic pouches from the German capital to foreign lands.

Most of the trips are across Europe or Asia for they are seldom used for overseas journeys. Generally the captains of German ocean liners are employed on such missions and their first objective on shore leave is to the German embassy or delegation.

Sometimes, too, the foreign office does not care to take the risk of reducing special instructions to writing. In such cases a trusted attaché of the foreign office is coached to memorize verbal orders or information. When he arrives at his destination he identifies himself with a password and the ambassador or minister, personally takes down the instructions as they are recited to him.

In the regular routine, however, the "silent nine" are employed to convey confidential documents. Every month the code division of the foreign office maps out their railway schedules and it knows day by day where each man is, whether in Kovno, Moscow, Angora, Tirana, Rome, Madrid or London.

An outsider has little chance to recognize these men for what they are. They travel first class as they are not expected to risk loss of their baggage by sharing their railway compartments with others. This, however, is the only luxury in which they indulge. They stop in good, but not extravagant hotels, live unostentatiously, and never let their baggage out of sight. If a courier deems it essential, he may request the foreign government through whose country he is traveling, to surround him with special safety measures, such as detectives or police guards. This is a privilege, however, of which the courier takes advantage only in rare instances, because his identity becomes known to too many. Whether he carries a pistol not even the foreign office knows.

WEST SECOND AVE. PAVING OPENED TO TRAFFIC FRIDAY

West Second Avenue from the intersection of North Twenty-Ninth Street to where the State Orphan's Home pavement reaches the city limits in the vicinity of the Jewish cemetery was opened to traffic Friday morning. This thirty-foot street was constructed by the commissioners court, city government and property owners. The commissioners court appropriated sufficient money to defray the expense of the middle eighteen feet from the funds of consolidated road district No. 1 and the city and property owners furnished the remainder of the cost. Where the new pavement joins the State Home road, two attractive chutes of concrete outside of the regular 30-foot street and outside of where the traffic will be, have been constructed to care for the water which drains into the street, beginning in Jester place. This 1800 feet of concrete street No. 1 connects the pavement on West Second Avenue with the 18-foot slab to the State Home and the 9-foot slab on the Corsicana-Drane road in consolidated road district No. 1.

STOWAWAY GIVEN BLAME FOR FAILURE REACH FRENCH SOIL

YELLOW BIRD'S NAVIGATOR SAYS ADDED WEIGHT CON- SUMED EXTRA FUEL

COMILLAS, Spain, June 15.—(AP) Whatever young Arthur Schreiber may think of his action in stowing away aboard the French trans-Atlantic monoplane, Yellow Bird, the 17-year-old, Portland, Maine, youth is getting a good share of the blame for the Yellow Bird's failure to reach French soil.

Rene Lefevre, the plane's navigator, was quite definite in thinking the stowaway was responsible.

"We may consider ourselves very fortunate, although we much regret that we could not reach the goal of our voyage because of the presence of our clandestine passenger. His weight caused a higher consumption of gasoline and forced us to come down at Le Bourget," said Lefevre.

Angered At First
"When Schreiber's presence was first discovered by us I admit we felt such a wave of anger that we were on the point of beating him," said Lefevre. "We felt he had not only jeopardized all our elaborate plans, but had even imperiled our lives. Then we began to feel sorry for him, and finally simply accepted him as our companion."

When Schreiber stepped on the beach at Orlambi he seemed perturbed until he felt the ground beneath his feet and then his face became wreathed in smiles. The smiles faded and were replaced by a look of blank astonishment as he heard hundreds of voices about him clamoring in Spanish, which he did not understand.

Pilot Was Serious
Armeno Loti, financial backer of the flight, and one of the three others aboard, introduced him to the crowd as, "our unlooked for pilot," a single French resident serving as interpreter. Mr. Loti was smiling, but Assolant, the pilot took the matter more seriously.

"We considered turning back during the few minutes we were circling over Old Orchard after we found him with us, but when we saw the accident to the Green Elit we thought we would better keep on our way."

"Once we were in the air we stuck him in a corner where he concealed himself before the start, and he stayed there all night. We were our sandwiches and food with him, of course. We had not calculated gasoline to carry him, but there he is, the little rascal."

Ladies Like Him
The seniorities of Comillas when discovered just what young Schreiber had done found him fully as attractive as the older aviators and his lack of Spanish proved no deterrent to amicable relations with them.

During the visit to Santander this morning Schreiber spoke of

DAWES VISITED KING GEORGE AND PRESENTED CREDENTIALS UNITED STATES AMBASSADOR

WINDSOR, Eng., June 15.—(AP) Under the lofty towers of Windsor Castle Gen. Charles G. Dawes bowed to King George today and presented his credentials as new American ambassador to Great Britain.

The former vice president was accompanied to the ancient seat of royalty by Mrs. Dawes, Ray Atherton, Embassy counselor, and Arthur Henderson, secretary for foreign affairs in the MacDonald cabinet.

State carriages drawn by high stepping white horses met the party at the train which brought them from Paddington station and conveyed them to the castle.

After the formal official greeting of the British sovereign to the new American diplomatic representative, the envoy and his party returned to the railway station and left for London, from where he expected to leave shortly to visit Prime Minister MacDonald in Scotland.

"I found the king delightful," the ambassador said after the ceremony. "I don't know what the usual ceremony is, but I just presented my credentials to him."

TEXAS' ONLY WOMAN SENATOR INTRODUCES RESOLUTION FOR CONDEMNATION MRS. HOOVER

AUSTIN, June 15.—(AP) The senate today was on record as condemning by resolution Mrs. Herbert Hoover, wife of the president, for entertaining at tea Wednesday Mrs. Oscar De Priest, wife of Chicago's negro congressman.

Senator Margie E. Neal, democrat, Carthage, the only woman member of the senate, introduced the resolution yesterday and spoke for it.

"It was an incident unthought of throughout the country and violation of the most sacred social custom from Washington to Coolidge," she declared.

Members of the senate were described in the resolving clause as "bowing our heads in shame and regret, and expressing in the strongest and most emphatic terms our condemnation and regret at the conduct on the part of the white house mistress and her associates."

Senator Walter Woodward, democrat, Coleman, offered an amendment which was accepted pointing out that democrats were warned in the 1928 campaign of the dangers of racial equality recognition at the national capitol through the election of President Hoover.

Only two votes were cast against the resolution. They were by Senator Tom Love, Dallas, and Senator Julien C. Hyer, Fort Worth, democrats who supported Hoover in the presidential election.

"I am very glad that I have placed my name on the heights with those who have followed in Lindbergh's footsteps."

15.—(AP) Premier Ramsay MacDonald, here awaiting the arrival of the new American ambassador, Charles G. Dawes, is hopeful that the general will be pleased with the peaceful setting of the Lodge House in Findhorn Valley.

"I am sure Gen. Dawes will be delighted with this charming Highland home," he said. "My old friend, Sir Alexander Grant, our host, is a man of hospitality and has seen that everything will be done to make us comfortable."

The premier will attend the Free church at Lossiemouth at noon tomorrow and will then drive direct to the castle to meet the American ambassador.

With his daughter, Isabel, and his private secretary, H. B. Usher, the premier will take Gen. Dawes to lunch with Sir Alexander, Lady Grant and their family. Then the premier and the new ambassador will begin to talk "quite informally."

Mr. MacDonald this morning said he probably would have something to say about Anglo-American cooperation in a speech which he would deliver Tuesday night at a dinner given by the Lossiemouth town council.

MANCHURIA HAS BEEN INVADIED BY SOVIET SOLDIERS

DESCRIBED AS RETALIATORY MEASURE FOR RECENT RAIDS ON CONSULS

LONDON, June 14.—(AP) A dispatch from Peking, China, to the Daily Express today said soviet Russia had launched war movements against China. Soviet troops were reported to have crossed the Siberian border and to have established outposts in Western Manchuria.

The dispatch said soviet reinforcements were being rushed in special trains over the Trans-Siberian railway and that Chang Hsueh-Liang, who has ruled Manchuria since the death of his father, Chang Tso-lin, had sent an urgent appeal to Nanking asking measures be taken to protect the territory.

The drastic measures were said to be in retaliation of raids by the Chinese Manchurian officials on Russian consulates at Harbin and other places on May 28, in the face of thousands of southern women, he said.

Miss Margie Neal, Carthage, only woman member of the senate, said she condemned the entertainment at which Mrs. De Priest was present, but favored delay until another resolution, more serious in its language could be drafted.

100 miles east of Manchouli. The movements were understood to be in reprisal for Chinese raids on soviet consulates in Manchuria May 28.

Border Forces Increased.
SHANGHAI, June 14.—(AP) A Chinese press dispatch from Harbin quoting unusually well informed sources said soviet authorities had increased their military force in the Siberian border opposite Manchouli to 15,000 men. The force included 5,000 cavalry.

Another report said Russians had ousted 50 Chinese merchants living within Russian territory close to the Siberian-Manchurian border.

The moves were said to have been made in retaliation for the Chinese raids on the soviet consulate in Manchouli.

Police in Harbin Manchuria, on May 28 raided the soviet consulate there, arresting forty persons, three of whom were Chinese. The Chinese were taken to the Russian consulate in Harbin.

Literature which it was said proved soviet activity in China, was confiscated, and it was understood recently was being sent to Nanking after translation and cataloging.

SHANGHAI, June 14.—An unofficial Russian report from Harbin, Manchuria, today said soviet troops had entered Kailash, Manchuria, on the Chinese Eastern Railway, about

Congratulations For Hooverites On White House Tea

AUSTIN, June 14.—(AP) Entertainment by Mrs. Herbert Hoover at a tea of Mrs. Oscar De Priest, wife of an Illinois negro congressman, drew criticism today in the senate from Senator T. J. Holbrook, Galveston, who offered a resolution congratulating Hoover democrats of the state.

"This is the most brilliant social function of the season," The tea, Senator Holbrook declared, "marks an epoch in the march of republican prosperity matched only by the president's far-sighted proposal."

The resolution met opposition from Senator Tom Love, Dallas, leader of Hoover democrat forces who asked that it be referred to the committee on federal relations of which he is chairman.

Defeated in this attempt, Love took the floor to oppose Holbrook's move with the declaration that it sneered at attempts of the president to put through farm relief legislation.

"This is no time to vote for a resolution by Tammany Hall supporters which slaps in the face thousands of southern women," he said.

Seven hours later Alice and Beatrice Hustin, sisters who roomed with the girl near the university hospital, identified the body after notifying police of her absence. The features were unrecognizable.

Police learned the girl had gone to the hospital Thursday night to inquire about part-time employment there to defray expenses at the school of medicine during the summer semester. At 7:45 o'clock she left, telling Bertha Dillon, switchboard operator, she had to catch an engagement and that she would return before ten o'clock.

Slain Thursday Night.
She failed to reappear at the hospital or her home, but it was not until late yesterday that alarm was felt for her safety, the girl's roommates believing she had spent the night with friends.

Their surprise that she had mentioned a date started authorities on a line of investigation which revealed that several times she had been recently with a man about 40 years old, driving with him in a small automobile. Her campus friends in amazement said she never had shown interest in university social life, and that she never, to their knowledge, had made dates with the few men she knew. They knew little more than that her home was in Bradenton, Fla., they said.

Police declared the girl made a terrific attempt to save herself. A wrist watch stopped at ten o'clock the hour she was due at the hospital. Police said it was broken during the struggle.

Coroner Murphy returned a verdict of murder and called an inquest.

MUTILATED BODY OF THEORA HIX IS FOUND AT COLUMBUS

GIRL IDENTIFIED BY ROOM- MATE AS FEATURES WERE BADLY BATTERED

COLUMBUS, O., June 15. (AP)—Marion T. Myers, employee of the state department of agriculture and Professor James H. Shook of the Ohio State University School of Veterinary Medicine, were held on formal charges of investigation by Columbus police today after they had been questioned in connection with the hammer killing Thursday night of Miss Theora K. Hix, Ohio state co-ed.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 15.—(AP) Theora Hix, 24, pretty post graduate student at Ohio State university whose mutilated body was found on a rifle range and identified last night by school companions who were known here as a quiet, studious co-ed was the subject of intense police investigation today as search was made for an unknown person with whom she had a date on the night of her death.

Two boys found the body yesterday when they went to the rifle range to practice. The head had been mutilated several times. The throat and body bore deep gashes.

Seven hours later Alice and Beatrice Hustin, sisters who roomed with the girl near the university hospital, identified the body after notifying police of her absence. The features were unrecognizable.

GREAT WELCOME IS ACCORDED FRENCH CREW BY SPANISH

YELLOW BIRD LANDED ON SPANISH COAST LATE FRI- DAY SHORT OF FUEL

SANTANDER, Spain, June 15. (AP)—The French trans-Atlantic fliers late today postponed their departure for Paris in the monoplane Yellow Bird until tomorrow.

The time of their departure to complete their trans-Atlantic voyage to Paris was set for five a. m. tomorrow, (11:00 p. m. Saturday night eastern standard time.)

Spanish mechanics checking over the motor of the French trans-Atlantic monoplane Yellow Bird this afternoon discovered some slight damage which would need about three hours to repair. The French aviators will probably postpone their departure for Le Bourget, France, until tomorrow.

COMILLAS, Spain, June 15.—(AP) The French trans-Atlantic monoplane Yellow Bird, took off from the beach here today, but returned shortly afterwards.

Then men, Jean Assolant, Rene Lefevre and Armeno Loti, were accompanied by their stowaway, Arthur Schreiber, of Portland, Me., and it was generally understood they were headed for their ultimate goal, Le Bourget field, Paris, but on their return they said they had only made a test flight.

The French aviators, who completed the eighth eastward airplane crossing of the Atlantic at 8:30 o'clock last evening, dropping down on the beach at Comillas, 508 miles short of Le Bourget, were given enthusiastic welcomes by the population of Comillas and visitors from nearby Santander, but this morning they were ready and eager to start on their last lap to their native land.

Thousands Disappointed.
The plane in alighting here disappointed thousands who had waited at Le Bourget for it until late last night. Assolant, who married a New York girl only five days ago, brought it to earth safely on the pebble strewn beach at Cape Orlambi, west of here, completing thirty hours and twenty-two minutes of flying over a course of about 3500 miles. The take-off was at Old Orchard, Maine, Thursday at 9:08 a. m., E. S. T.

Assolant blamed the stowaway for the fuel shortage and consequently the failure to land on French soil, explaining it had been necessary to release some of the precious petrol from the tanks as soon as Schreiber was discovered aboard in order to gain height. Schreiber had hidden in the rear storage compartment of the plane until the flight was under way.

"I had not counted on the extra weight when I estimated our fuel load," he said.

Fliers Fond of Stowaway.
The aviators seemed to have developed a real fondness for their uninvited guest, and he for them. During the flight he shared with them, and spent last night with them at the local hotel.

He apparently was laboring under great emotion as the plane landed and expressed joy when he set his foot on solid earth. He found no one to talk to among the Spaniards in the crowd around the plane and seemed lost at the Yuss made over him in the strange language.

The plane was not damaged in landing. It needed only fuel and a few "Spanish" mechanics to get it in order to take off and continue its flight. The original "starter" they had jettisoned in the course of their flight in order to lighten the plane after they discovered Schreiber aboard.

Welcome Tumultuous.
This little town, containing but a few hundred people and decades ago was the rendezvous of the Spanish royal family who came here for sea bathing, gave the aviators a tumultuous welcome.

An official reception was hastily organized, the weary fliers submitting graciously. After stemming the tide of oratory, they were taken to a hotel, where dark-haired girls crowded around and smothered them with flowers.

Assolant got in touch with the governor of Santander province at Santander, thirty miles east of here, on the Bay of Biscay and asked him for 125 gallons of gasoline with which to continue the flight to Paris. The governor immediately gave orders that it be brought from the fuel depot at Astierro near Santander, together with lubricating oil and distilled water.

At Madrid the Spanish dictator, Primo de Rivera, ordered every facility be accorded the Yellow Bird and that the landing gear appearance they needed for take-off be sent to them by airplane.

Crowd Well and Happy.
Assolant, Le Fèvre, Loti and Schreiber appeared well and happy as they emerged from their cramped cabin. As they stretched stiff and weary limbs people began to run up to ascertain their identity and the reason for the unexpected visit. The fliers hailed the natives in French; they replied in Spanish, the aviators realizing for the first time to their intense disappointment, that they had not landed in France after all.

Their chagrin soon vanished before the enthusiastic kindness of the people who trooped up in ever growing numbers as the news spread, a lone Frenchman among them acting as interpreter. The town's civil guards formed a cordon around the plane to save it from souvenir hunters as the four adventurers left it for town and dinner—something more substantial than the bananas and oranges on which they had subsided in the crossing.

What Refrigerator Shall I Buy?

By MRS. PHYLLIS K. DUNNING

An electric refrigerator is a life-time investment. Consequently when you purchase one you must consider not only the present but the reasonably far-distant future as well.

In order to guarantee yourself years of satisfaction, it is first of all necessary to be sure that you buy an electric refrigerator which is made by a reputable company which you can depend upon to remain in business. Next, be sure that the company maintains an adequate service station, so that if the time should come when something interferes with the operation of your refrigerator, you can get it attended to promptly and efficiently.

Choosing the Right Sized Cabinet

Having selected the company one of whose refrigerators you wish to purchase, and having based your selection upon its reliability and service facilities, the next thing to consider is the size of refrigerator best suited to your requirements.

Do not make the fatal mistake of buying a cabinet too small for your needs. It costs comparatively little more to run a large refrigerator, and to purchase a cabinet of insufficient capacity is to rob yourself at once of many of electric refrigerators' advantages.

Buy a refrigerator large enough to permit you to store in it generous quantities of food, for it will keep your food in such perfect condition that you can plan to market only once or twice a week. (Just think what you can do with the time you will save by eliminating those daily trips to the shops!) Buy a refrigerator large enough to permit you to cook at one time quantities sufficient to last for several days—the idea being to turn Monday's cold boiled potatoes into Tuesday's potatoes au gratin and Wednesday's hashed brown.

Don't Overcrowd Your Refrigerator

Packages or dishes of food, if placed too closely together in the cabinet, will interfere with the circulation of cold air through it, and this circulation is what chills the foods and keeps them in such splendid condition. Therefore, select a cabinet large enough to permit you to store your foods without undue crowding.

The Insulation Is Very Important

In selecting your refrigerator, be sure to inquire about the materials which are used to line the walls of the cabinet. Upon these hidden materials, which constitute its inside walls depend the refrigerator's ability to keep the food out of the cabinet and the cold in the material with good insulating prop-

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA MISSION BUNGALOW

CHARMING DESIGN FOR EIGHT ROOMS

The original and interesting treatment of this bungalow's design makes a distinct appeal to those who are endeavoring to avoid the commonplace.

Pleasing touches of Mission style in its general profiles testify to its California origin, but the house will grace any site.

For the exterior wall covering, portland cement stucco was chosen because of its especial adaptability to this architectural style. Applied on walls of concrete masonry, the stucco harmonizes completely with the brightly colored tile roof. Such construction assures an even temperature throughout the entire interior, for the hollow concrete units provide desirable insulation.

The entrance to this charming home is through a terrace into a small hallway leading to the exceptionally large living room. The right side of the home is given over to two good-sized bedrooms with bath between and a library with four spacious windows. On the left is another bedroom, the well-appointed kitchen and breakfast and dining rooms.

All eight rooms are planned and laid out with a view to saving many steps. The central location of the living room gives access, directly bills at a minimum, and, in case operation should ever be interrupted, will maintain a cold cabinet for a remarkably long time. Examine too the construction of the doors and make sure that the locks work easily, hold securely and require no hanging in order to be closed completely.

A Word of Warning.

Checking up on these points before you buy your refrigerator will save you annoyance later on.

At this time two men's Sunday school classes are to be organized, one for ages 18 to 30 years and one from 30 years up. Invitations will be extended by Mr. McElwath to a list of two hundred men with the following committee helping in the matter: Boyce Martin, J. L. Halbert, A. A. Allison, S. W. Burdine and Van W. Harrell. In the Church Bulletin the following announcements were made Sunday: Special called meeting of the Board of Stewards for 8 o'clock Monday night; regular prayer services Wednesday night and choir rehearsal Thursday night. The Bulletin also announced that Dr. Culver was holding a two-weeks revival at East Bernard, Texas, and that two new members had joined the church by letter, Mr. and Mrs. Mart Pate, living at 709 West Fourth avenue, having recently moved to Corsicana from Stamford. Mr. Pate is with the Cox Dry Goods Company.

In the adult department A. A. Allison presided, Rev. A. W. Hall led the devotional and Lawrence Treadwell was the principal speaker. On next Sunday in this department Mrs. J. W. David will be the principal speaker and her subject will be "Missions," the following Sunday will be observed with a talk on patriotism.

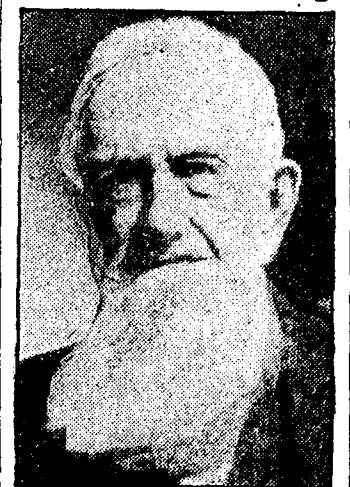

In the Weller Bible Class S. W. Burdine, president, presided, and Rev. A. W. Hall taught the class. At the morning church hour, Van W. Harrell presided, the choir sang an anthem, "I Will Arise," by Vail, and Rev. A. W. Hall preached. At the night church hour Rev. Mr. Hall again preached and the choir sang an anthem, "Like As the Heart."

On next Sunday morning Rev. Van W. Harrell will preach, and Sunday night Rev. Walter Griffith will preach.

The subject used by Rev. Mr. Hall at the morning hour was "Sin and Crime." He showed by a chart what crime was costing this country in dollars. He said if there was no sin there would be no crime, all crime coming from sin. He said that not only was it costing billions of dollars yearly in money but asked what of the broken lives, broken hearts, grief and other things that went with sin and crime. He then stated that the church was fighting crime and turned to a table of what the

ONE OF LAST MEXICAN WAR VETERANS WILLIAM BUCKNER, DIES AT AGE OF 101 YEARS

War Veteran Dies
At Advanced Age

WILLIAM F. BUCKNER

PARIS, Mo., June 17.—William Fitzhugh Thornton Buckner, 101 years old, believed to have been next to the last surviving veteran of the Mexican war, died at his home here Sunday.

One of the thousands of young men who responded to the country's call for service in the war with Mexico, William Fitzhugh Buckner survived that international struggle by more than 80 years.

In January, 1928, he rounded out a century of life. A few months after a perusal of the records of the Pension Bureau a Washington disclosed that the fingers of one had been too numerous to count the living veterans of the Mexican war.

At that time, besides Mr. Buckner, there were two others, Richard Albert Howard of Sterling City, Texas, and Owen Thomas Edgar of Washington, each three years his junior.

Mr. Buckner had a picturesque and somewhat adventurous career and at 100, although white-bearded, the years had failed to change his erect stature developed in his military training as a youth.

Born in Caroline county, Virginia, January 27, 1828, Mr. Buckner had taken up his residence in the Central West when a young man. He was only about 18 years old when the war with Mexico began, and enlisted in Company A, First Missouri mounted volunteers, under Colonel Alexander William Doniphan.

As a member of the expeditionary force that marched to Mexico from Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, Mr. Buckner with his regiment participated in several important engagements, including the battle of Taos, N. M.

After the war Mr. Buckner returned to Missouri and the next year joined the Forty-Niners in the rush to California for gold. He counted as one of the epic milestones of his life his task of driving 400 head of cattle from Missouri to California across uncharted lands and through hostile territory. His quest for gold was fruitless, but this century with the cattle proved profitable.

He again returned to Missouri and with the money derived from the sale of cattle engaged in the mercantile business in Paris in 1854, in which he continued for some years. Later he became president of the Paris National Bank. Since his retirement from business activities he had made his home at Paris, Mo.

American dollar was spent for and showed that the church received less than one per cent of the dollar for its work while crime was costing over eight cents out of every dollar and that over twenty cents out of every dollar was spent for luxuries.

PEASANTS FLOCK TO ROME DESPITE GOVERNMENT BANS

ROME (AP)—The Eternal City is waxing so strong in population as to prove an embarrassment to the government. Despite the comprehensive regulations of the Fascist regime against wholesale movements to the city, the flow of countrymen into the capital is more than twice what it was only five years ago.

The "Capitolium," the monthly review of the Governor of Rome, in considering this problem at some length, reveals that in the last fiscal year Rome's population was augmented by 39,164. In 1923 this number was only 18,496. Experts predict that if this keeps up Rome will have a million and a half inhabitants in 50 years. The population now is 870,571.

The "Capitolium," however, believes that the influx of country people will gradually diminish, as stringent laws are extended and applied. In Italy every citizen is required to have a "lessera," or identification card. If a small townsman or farmer leaves his district he is promptly sent back unless he can show that he has a job in the city for which he is qualified. That he is a professional man of that his family lives in the city.

Corsicana is soon to have its first yo-yo contest, when the Intermediate Department of the First Methodist Sunday school assembles Friday evening at 8:30 on the lawn at the Education Building.

The honorees of the party will be the members of the class formerly taught by Tillie Frances Young, who are leading in the contest now being staged in this department.

There will be plenty to eat and drink, members of the committee stated Monday, as well as the KERENS, June 17.—(Spl)—Roy Jones of Kerens was the lucky one to receive the first $25 offered by the Kerens Wolf club for the wolves killed near here. Mr. Jones got his wolf last Sunday with a rifle as the dogs belonging to Ed Sheppard were chasing it.

Jones also set a trap Monday and Monday night caught a wolf puppy about two months old, and collected another $10 reward. The Kerens Wolf Club is offering these rewards in order to rid this part of the country of the pack of wolves east of Kerens, as the farmers have lost considerable number of sheep, goats, pigs and poultry. Some say there are at least 25 or 30 head in the pack and can be heard howling nearly every night.

SERVANT PROBLEM BRINGS WORRY TO PARIS HOUSEWIFE

PARIS, June 15.—(AP)—Death of servants is hitting the Paris housewife hard. Registry offices supplying domestics complain that the country lass of today as far less inclined to leave the field and farm or the provincial town for Paris.

Servants used to be sent round by registry offices to be interviewed. Now the only way to get a servant is to pass many hours, day after day, in registry offices. Seventeen mistresses sat all afternoon in one office and only five domestics seeking situations put in an appearance.

The servants are taking every advantage of the state of the market and will not go to families of more than three persons. Some maids demand that their husbands shall be housed or employed with them.

Thrifty French people are unwilling to pay more than $14 to $20 a month, all found, for a general "hired girl." But registry office keepers say that unless they come round to the idea of paying considerably more there will soon be no servants at all.
